MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 26, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee.

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County.
H. N. GEORGE, of Linn County.
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

Judge Williams' Reception.

Last Saturday night there was a large meeting of citizens at the Theatre to hear an address from our newly elected United States Senator, Geo. H. Williams. His speech satisfied all Union men. In strong language he declared that he should sustain the Administration in its efforts to crush this rebellion and to secure the re-election of President Lincoln with all the powers that God had given him.

He was followed by Mr. Gazley, who presented some startling statements in relation to George B. McClellan, which opens a new era in that gentleman's history. He stated that Pollard, the Southern historian of the War, had published the statement that George B. McClellan in the commencement of this war, had offered his services to the South, requiring from the South a high position. He was answered that he must take a low rank and work up. This did not answer his views and McClellan was soon found in the Federal army with a rank that better satisfied his ambition. McClellan was furnished with as fine an army as the world ever saw, with all the means to make it efficient. He moved slowly—fought battles without results—for, when he could have marched into Richmond without opposition, he did not do so. An Englishman, and an officer of the rebel army has published this fact with all the evidence required, in a work which was circulated in England. McClellan was continued in power—the enemy made an irruption into Maryland—they were beaten—and a large force of 15,000 men were held in reserve, which, if it had been brought into action would have destroyed the rebel army root and branch. The officers of the army implored McClellan to bring the reserve force into the fight—he would not; and Major Keys, one of Gen. McClellan's aids, gave the reason why this was not done; it was not the policy of McClellan to visit upon the rebels a Waterloo defeat. That declaration, coming to the knowledge of the President, caused Major Keys to lose his head.—But the conduct of Major Keys was not rebuked by McClellan. Subsequently there was a second battle near Bull Run.—Gen. Pope was in command. He whipped the rebels the first day.—They were heavily reinforced. Gen. Pope ordered Fitzjohn Porter, with his force, to come to his assistance. He would not do it. Our army was defeated. Fitzjohn Porter telegraphed to McClellan—"I hope you are satisfied with what I have done." McClellan did not rebuke Porter, and soon after was very properly removed from the command of the Army of the Potomac. From thence he naturally fell into the hands of rebels in the North—and is now the Vallandigham candidate for President.

Mr. Gazley was followed by Gov. Gibbs. The Governor compared the character of the President and McClellan in regard to their character as statesmen. He traced the history of Mr. Lincoln through all the public offices he has held as a jurist—in all the courts of his State and the Supreme Court at Washington—in all of which he had made his mark as one of our leading jurists and statesmen; and Gov. Gibbs asked what had McClellan done?—where was the evidence of his statesmanship?—where was his military achievements? His troops had fought as heroes—but what had he effected? He was undoubtedly a good engineer—as he proved himself under the command of our lamented Stevens; but he asked with earnestness what else is there of him?

Mr. Pearne closed. He demonstrated the necessity of prosecuting this war to the bitter end, that our country might have peace—such a peace as would last for all time to come and would secure to our nation a leading position among the nations of the earth. We will not undertake to report the proceedings of the meeting further in detail. Every loyal man present was proud of the ability exhibited by the speakers—feeling that our cause, placed before the people by such men, will secure a response at the November election which will electrify the hearts of all Union people.

The Specific Contract Law.—We are surprised to learn that an impression prevails, to some extent, adverse to the enactment of a law compelling men to perform their agreements. It is based, as we are told, upon one of the resolutions adopted by the Baltimore Convention, which reads thus:

Resolved, That the national faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt, must be kept inviolate, and for this purpose we recommend economy and rigid responsibility in the public expenditures, and a vigorous and just system of taxation; that it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain the credit and promote the use of the national currency.

While we fully accord to a political convention the privilege of announcing a course of political action, we earnestly insist that in the dealings of individuals with each other, no convention has any right to interfere. If Jones agrees to pay Smith one hundred dollars in coin for coin loaned, or for merchandise sold at coin value, there ought to be a law compelling Jones to pay what he promised. Any other doctrine is subversive of the best interests of the community, and opens the way to fraud and interminable mischief. The resolution referred to has force only and simply when currency is adopted as the prevailing medium of exchange, but it cannot and ought not to be regarded as binding in any respect, where coin continues to be the general and universal currency. All contracts should be enforced according to the intent of those who made them, and if by an appeal to the theory of a political party, the agreements of men are to be avoided, and their object frustrated, public confidence will be sacrificed, and no one will know whom he can trust. We hope therefore that our Legislature will not fail to protect the interests of the people, and by the enactment of the law now pending, will give security to all classes who, while they respect and sustain the national currency, justly claim that if they make agreements upon a coin basis, these agreements shall be enforced and made valid.

ALL RIGHT WITH SHERMAN.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The following correspondence between the President and Grant furnishes an inside view of military affairs:

April 30th.—Lieut. Gen. Grant: Not expecting to see you before the spring campaign opens, I wish to express in this way my entire satisfaction with what you have done up to this time, so far as I understand it. The particulars of your plans I neither know nor seem to know. You are vigilant and self-reliant; and, pleased with this, I wish not to obtrude any restraints or constraints upon you. While anxious that any great disaster or capture of our men in great numbers may be avoided, I know these points are less likely to escape your attention than mine. If there be anything wanting within my power to give, don't fail to let me know it. Now, with a brave army and a just cause, may God sustain you.

(Signed) LINCOLN.

Culpepper, May 1.—To President Lincoln: Your very kind letter of yesterday is just received. The confidence you express for the future and the satisfaction for the past, with regard to my military administration, is acknowledged with pride, and it shall be my earnest endeavor that you and the country shall not be disappointed. From my first entrance into the volunteer service of the country up to the present day, I have never had cause of complaint—never expressed or implied a complaint—against the Administration or the Secretary of War, for throwing any thing in the way, or the embarrassment, of vigorously prosecuting what appeared to be my duty. Indeed, since the promotion which placed me in command of all the armies, in view of the great responsibility and the importance of success, I have been astonished with the readiness with which everything asked has been yielded, without even any explanation. Should my success be less than I desire and expect, at the least, I can only say that the fault is not with you.

(Signed) GRANT.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of diseases. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the overplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

TAKING FOR THE FAIR.—Portland will be quite well represented in the display and decoration of [illegible] at Salem, this week, at the annual Fair of the State Agricultural Society. The fine collection of ambrotypes, photographs, and card pictures of Messrs. Buchtel & Cardwell, including a variety in number of about two hundred and fifty copies, will attract considerable attention. The views of the [illegible] scenery of the Snake river, the new illustrations of Astoria; the pictures of [illegible] and the splendidly tinted ambrotypes, all are deserving of premiums, and we are very much mistaken if the collection does not get it. [illegible] to [illegible] our friends of counterfeiting, but Mr. [illegible] has done pretty close to it, in his [illegible], and visitors at the Fair will say so. Of embroidery Mr. Pierson takes the [illegible] and [illegible] a few articles in that line that must astonish the ladies. Among the lot we noticed [illegible] wrapper, drab, stitched in flowers; a handsome dark brown silk and stitched in flowers; a handsome purple cloth opera cloak, embroidered, and trimmed with white silk; an infants' dress and blanket; boys' pant and shirt; Misses' dress and jacket, and sundry other finely worked articles, which will be taken in with his display of sewing machines. One of the most interesting and important features which will be represented in the Fair, is the case of dental work, containing [illegible] English and American rubber, gold and [illegible] metal, together with some very fine [illegible] and specimens of difficult mechanical dentistry, got up by Dr. J. R. Cardwell. We might continue our list to an indefinite length, but it is not necessary, all samples forwarded from Portland for exhibition are alike creditable to [illegible] and the projectors of it, and attest the fact of what we can show, when Portland gets [illegible].

STEAM NAVIGATION.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the [illegible] has an able and well written editorial article on the subject of the California Steam Navigation Company, which is a word in favor of that corporate body, and contains some just criticisms on the course pursued by the press of San Francisco and the managers of the Washoe, in running opposition. There is truth in relation to what the C. S. N. Co. have done for California, that might, with equal propriety, be applied to the O. S. N. Co. in Oregon, which is none the less a community of practical steamboat men. The journals of California are disposed to probe to the bottom the results of the recent terrible tragedy on the Sacramento river, and it may be of consequence to the world in finding out whether the Washoe was built to sell for a price equal to her own and another boat's worth, or whether she was designed for a public good. We are here about to witness a rivalry on our own rivers, and while we are pleased to encourage fair competition we shall watch the course of events with interest, trusting we may never be called upon to record such [illegible] as those which have just happened in our neighboring State—we believe we shall not, as we feel confident there will be no feeling of [illegible] run opposition by either company, and so long as these [illegible] the lives of the people will hardly be jeopardized.

ASSESSMENT OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY.—Mr. John Holland has completed his assessment of Multnomah county for 1864, and the same was accepted by the board of Commissioners on Saturday last. The total valuation of real estate in the county is given at $2370,[illegible]—divided as follows: value of lots and blocks $1,842,090; value of land $[illegible]. The aggregate total of personal property in the county is $1,[illegible]—making an aggregate amount for taxation of $4,318,190.

A CELESTIAL ROW.—A man entered a Chinese laundry on First street yesterday morning for the purpose of obtaining some clean linen, and shortly afterwards found himself interested in a contest for [illegible], which resulted in a congregation of [illegible]. A medley of sounds, and a regular row among them attracted the authorities, who [illegible] and secured the names of the parties to have the matter examined into before the Recorder to-day.

ON THE MARCH.—Several of the State Militia from this city, yesterday took up the line of march with baggage, equipments, etc., for the Capital, to [illegible] under inspection and review during the State Fair. Capt. Mills' Company, Washington Guards, left the city escorted by a band of martial music, and really looked in trim for battle and meeting the enemy, rather than volunteering for the holidays.

A FALL CROP.—The raspberry bramble is an annual root, and rarely exhibits a case paralleled with [illegible] at present existing in the garden of Gen. Coffin in this city. There may be seen berries on raspberry stems grown since last spring, at his garden, now ripening them several months in advance of their season.

LIKELY TO PROVE FATAL.—The name of the man so badly injured by a fall from the street into the gulch at the upper part of town, is Madison Morris. The broken bones have been carefully dressed, but his physician is fearful that death will ensue from internal injuries.

THE bark Clara Rosa Sutil left in tow of the steamer Julia for Springville yesterday afternoon, where she will receive an addition to her cargo and proceed coast wise in tow of the steamer John H. Couch to-day.

THE steamer New World was receiving a superb covering of matting, oil cloth and carpets, through her spacious cabins and halls, yesterday, under the superintendence of Messrs. Emil Lowenstein & Co.

DELINQUENTS.—By reference to the books of the assessor and collector, we notice uncollected $1[illegible] of military tax; $765 county poll tax, and $[illegible] State tax.

DEATH OF A PIONEER.—Mr. F. B. Smith, one of the pioneers of this State, died at his residence in Oregon City on Friday evening.

THE new ferry was started under full head on Saturday.

THE MURDERED MEN FOUND.—Last week we stated that it was rumored that Geo. Meeks of Lane County and a Californian had been murdered in the Blue Mountains on the Eugene and Canyon City trail, about 160 miles east of here, and that a party had gone out to search for the bodies. Henry Hendshott came in a few days before, and stated that while he, Meeks and the Californian, were camped on Willow Creek, on their way to Eugene, they were attacked by robbers. He said that while he was out herding the horses he heard firing at camp. On going towards camp he saw some men on horseback—they shot at him—he mounted his horse and made his escape. He said that the Californian was at camp and was probably killed, as he thought he heard him calling for help. He didn't know what had become of Meeks, as he was out hunting at the time. Other parties came in a few days after that and brought with them Meeks' horses, which they found on Willow Creek. A company, consisting of the brother of Meeks and several other citizens, started out to investigate the matter. On arriving at the place indicated, they found the body of the Californian, a Mr. Bell of Yreka, shot through the breast. He had a loaded revolver belted round him, and his gun was lying near his side. Neither his gun nor revolver had been discharged, and it was evident the murdered man had been shot dead when not expecting danger. They found about $1,100 in gold on his person. Meeks was found some distance from camp, shot through the head. A little money was found on his person. None of the guns or pistols had been fired off, and both the men had evidently been killed when not expecting danger, and without having an opportunity to offer any resistance.

The fact that neither of the bodies had been plundered or searched, the first thing usually done by robbers, and that the [illegible] which was probably supposed to contain all the money of both men was robbed of its contents, [illegible] to have been quite a large sum of money, raises suspicion in the minds of many against the fellow traveler of the unfortunate men.—Eugene State Journal.

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Common Cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires. Redington & Co., San Francisco, Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Periodical Headache.—So common in uncleared and marshy countries, the Douloureux, that most painful affection of the nerves of the face, are often only attacks of [illegible] in disguise—proceeding from the same noxious influence. Jaundice, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea are frequently but disguised forms of Intermittent Fever. Even Rheumatism and Epilepsy, often result from the same miasmal cause. For such, Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue is an unfailing remedy. By striking at the root of these affections, it applies with equal certainty as for the cure of Fever and Ague in its simplest forms. Imitations are abroad! Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. Sold everywhere.

Dysentery.—For Dysentery and similar complaints of the Summer season, the PERUVIAN SYRUP has proved a remarkable preventive and cure. By imparting tone to the intestinal mucous membrane, it places this surface in the best possible condition to resist the irritation of crude and indigestible articles of food.

Oregonians should test the merits of Dr. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. While it is highly palatable as a beverage, it is regarded as an invigorator. In the pursuit of gold about the mines, many persons are exposed to the attacks of complaints of the digestive organs, and of various kinds of fever. It is the very article that has so long been in demand at the mines. Its daily use will restore the tone of a deranged stomach, impart fresh vitality to the digestive functions, and cheer the spirits. Yet the Bitters is the safest of all stimulants. Let the miner who is exposed to hot and dry, wet and cold, be certain to obtain a supply of the genuine Hostetter Bitters, and he will find it a certain safeguard to health.—Sold by Druggists and dealers generally. jy2daw

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!
Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.
THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS RESPECTFULLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state, by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a nauseating [illegible] has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given the brand a trial.
The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by the [illegible] clippers to New York, which they offer to the trade at [illegible] figures.

The Maiden's Prayer.

By [illegible]

She rose from her delicious sleep,
And put away her soft brown hair,
And in a tone as low and deep
As love's first whisper, breathed a prayer,
Her snow-white hands together pressed,
Her blue eyes sheltered in the lid,
The folded linen on her breast
Just swelling with the charms it hid.

And from her long and flowing dress
Escaped a bare and snowy foot,
Whose step upon the earth did press
Like a sweet snowflake, soft and mute;
And then from slumbers soft and warm,
Like a young spirit fresh from heaven,
She bowed that slight and matchless form,
And humbly prayed to be forgiven.

Oh, God! if souls as pure as these Need daily mercy from thy throne—
If she upon her bended knees,
Our holiest and dearest one—
She with her face so clear and bright,
We deem her some stray child of light;
If she, with those soft eyes and tears,
Day after day in her young years,
Must kneel and pray for grace from Thee,
How humbly, if she left not heaven,
Will our wild errors be forgiven!

Love Overcomes Difficulties.—The Marysville Express has the following, as another illustration of how "Love laughs at locksmiths."

We are informed that a few days ago a couple of young folks walked into the Clerk's office at Yuba City and asked for a license to get married. Now it so happens that it is necessary for the young lady to be 18 years old before she can be married, and, having a very juvenile appearance, the Clerk refused to issue the document which would make two loving hearts one. Here was a dilemma, and how to get over it? Love is blind, they say; but the young lady could see a plan to evade the law. So, going home with the chosen one of her heart, she arranged the following plan: Her sister, who was 20 years of age, consented to go with the intended of the young lady to a County Clerk of another county and there ask for a license in the name of the younger sister, which she easily procured, and the following day the two were made man and wife. When we heard this we concluded that it was useless to make laws that young ladies, when they wish to marry, will not evade.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with great success in curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhea, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which this syrup provides a remedy is precisely that which has defied the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medical effects of Protoxide of Iron are lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination in a WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to overestimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is found to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton, of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 1, 1856, page 73).

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body, the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

From the [illegible] to the [illegible] battle-field—the [illegible] of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the [illegible]—from the mountain-top, distant valley and far-off isles of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is coming the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

[illegible], Sept. 10, 1863.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fifteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored me to speech and cured me. * * * C. A. FRAUTS.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July [illegible], 1861.

* * * [illegible] Plantation Bitters [illegible]. EDWARD WO[illegible]

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET, New York, August 2, 1863.

Dr. Drake:—Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life. REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me. REV. C. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house. SYKES, CHADWICK & CO., Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect. G. W. D. ANDREWS, Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm. C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log-cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATtended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once re-braced, revivified and built up. We call this celebrated medicine the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGURY AND BURNING
OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
